

National Y-Teen
Roll Call Week
Set Oct. 9-15

Mrs. Douglas Corrigan, Metropolitan Y-Teen chairman, announces that 5500 Y-Teens, junior members of the Los Angeles Young Women's Christian Association, will observe National Y-Teen Roll Call Week, Oct. 9-15.

At this time they join with 375,000 Y-Teen club members throughout the country in the annual Y-Teen membership drive.

Highlights of the week, which will be observed in all Los Angeles YWCA branches and centers, will be the traditional candlelight recognition service, when new girls receive memberships, installation of officers of Y-Teen clubs; and the "Chocolates for Christmas" drive.

Gambles-Western Auto Now Open
7 Days a Week

Gambles-Western Auto Supply Company, 8825 South Sepulveda boulevard, in Westchester, will be open seven days a week, according to district manager R. A. Armstrong.

Starting this week, Sunday hours will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Armstrong said, to give families more opportunity to shop together.

"It was a drastic change to make in our merchandising habits," he added, "but, commuting husbands just can't arrange to be home during usual store hours in Westchester."

To make the day more profitable for residents, the store is adding many new features to the home-furnishing departments.

Andrew Bennett PTA
Fathers' Dinner
Attended by 85

First PTA fathers' dinner given at Andrew Bennett school auditorium Monday evening, Oct. 2, proved to be a great success. A group of 85 men were present to enjoy the delicious buffet dinner prepared by women members of the PTA, and to get better acquainted.

Following the dinner, the satisfied fathers enthusiastically participated in a community sing led by Joe Marino, who later entertained at the piano.

Speakers for the evening, introduced by William Strampe, included Dr. Robert Cralle, superintendent of Inglewood City schools; Chester Taft, and Edgar Egly, assistant business manager for Inglewood schools.

Parent participation in matters relating to the Inglewood City schools system was the keynote of Dr. Cralle's message. Taft discussed the methods employed in securing teaching personnel for the schools, and Egly discussed the budget, clarifying the source of school funds and how the monies are spent.

Guests were Paul Greene, sixth grade teacher; James Boydston, playground supervisor for Andrew Bennett school; Walter Bean, Inglewood Council men's membership chairman, and Walter Lavers, Bennett school PTA men's membership chairman.
